Christ's Command has the Power to Revolutionise Your Life

For Simon Peter, the humble fisherman from Galilee, this was the first day of the rest of his life. From this day on life became meaningful, purposeful, and fulfilling. On this day there was a revolution in his life. It's the revolution we are all thirsting for. And if we follow Peter's example, we can have it. This revolution had two ingredients: First, Christ had to knock Simon Peter out of his comfort zone. Second, Peter had to step into Christ's comfort zone. Jesus does his part masterfully. Jesus tells Simon Peter to "Put out into deep water and lower your nets for a catch." Now, Peter was the expert at fishing, not Jesus. The boat belonged to him; he was the CEO of a fishing company. Peter knew that you don't catch fish in broad daylight, especially after a night without any catch at all. But Jesus just looks right at him, inviting him, challenging him: he is pushing Peter out of his comfort zone, into the deep water of the lake, and into the deep spiritual water of faith. That's the first ingredient in the revolution: Jesus knocks Peter out of his comfort zone. Now comes the second ingredient. Peter actually obeys. He doesn't obey because he understands. He doesn't obey because he can figure it out. No. He obeys only for one reason: because Christ is the one issuing the command: "Master... at your command I will lower the nets." Peter lets Jesus push him out of his own comfort zone; he takes the risk of stepping into Christ's comfort zone: "Master, at your command, at your word, because you want it, Lord, I will do it..." That's the formula for Christian revolution, the revolution that brings meaning to life.

First Holy Communion

Our classes for First Holy Communion will be starting on Sunday 9th March. The registration forms are available please complete a registration for each child and give it to Anne Howard or Fr Herbert as soon as possible. The dates of the meetings will be finalised at this first meeting on the 9th March

The Holy Year and Silver Jubilee of the Shrine Next year in October 2025 we have the Silver Jubilee of the Blessing of the Shrine. Our Shrine has been designated by Bishop Arnold as one of the places to gain graces of the Holy Year through receiving the Holy Year Indulgence. Throughout the year pilgrims will make their way to the Shrine to be welcomed by our Parish and the Schoenstatt Family. In a special way the members of the Parish are invited to join with the Schoenstatt Family to celebrate this Silver Jubilee. A number of workgroups are starting to meet to plan a programme. If you would like to join one of the workgroups please talk to Fr Herbert, Fr Bryan, Patty Ganley, Anne Ostmeier or Edmund Birch.

GOOD NEWS Become an Expert in Christ

The more we are filled with Christ, the way the truth and the life, the wiser and happier we will be. The more we are filled with Christ, the Saviour, the more helpful we will be to those around us.

MARRIAGE MATTERS Follow your dream

'Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts. His glory fills the whole earth.' Isaiah was sustained by his vision of God in glory; Paul by his vision of Jesus. On our wedding days we had a dream for our future together. The grace of God has sustained that vision through many struggles. Let's always seek to follow our dream.

Shrine Silver Jubilee Prayer

Father God,
 You are the God of all Time;
 God of the Past, Present and Future,
 Many years ago, you gave us a vision of building a Shrine in England
 A place, we could dedicate to Our Mother Thrice Admirable.
 You have walked with us, as a Schoenstatt family through all the years of prayer, sacrifice, planning and action to make this vision a reality.
 At the turn of the Millennium, through the powerful intercession of Our Mother, our dream came true and we rejoiced as the Shrine was blessed and opened to all.
 Since then, many have come from all parts of the country and across the world to discover the graces available in this holy place.
 As we celebrate in the Holy Year 2025, the Silver Jubilee of our Shrine, we pray that Our Blessed Mother will continue to draw many people to the Shrine
 To find a welcome,
 To find a home in her heart and that of her Blessed Son Jesus,
 To be transformed and renewed in their mission in life,
 To serve you and each other in love.
 Mother, bless your English Schoenstatt Family
 Bless your Shrine, Our Home! Amen
