Schoenstatt

The worldwide Schoenstatt movement was founded in an act of invitation: the earthly partners offered their striving for sanctity and their heavenly partner, Mary, was asked to come to actively dwell in their Shrine as mother and educator. This is the Covenant of Love upon which Schoenstatt was founded.

What it is a Covenant Mass?

- It is a Mass that incorporates a renewal of the "Covenant of Love".
- It is a commemoration of a founding event: It honours the original covenant made by Father Kentenich and the first Schoenstatt members on October 18, 1914, in the Schoenstatt Shrine in Germany.
- Which shows a commitment to Mary: Through the renewal, individuals offer themselves to Mary, and in turn, she guides them to Christ.
- Covenant Masses are celebrated globally on or around the 18th of each month to commemorate Schoenstatt's founding day, and to renew a personal commitment and devotion to Mary and to recommit to living out their baptismal consecration.

Why it's celebrated

- To deepen one's faith: It is an opportunity for individuals and Schoenstatt communities worldwide to pause, reconnect with Mary, and reaffirm their commitment to their faith and the covenant.
- To make the covenant a living relationship: The Covenant of Love is not a one-time event but a relationship that is renewed and deepened throughout one's life.
- To be united spiritually: It is a way for Schoenstatt members around the world to feel spiritually united in their commitment.

Do I have to be a Schoenstatt 'member' to attend?

No. There are no "membership" requirements to be involved in Schoenstatt and anyone can attend a Covenant Mass. Covenant Masses are celebrated in the usual way. You will notice no differences in the liturgy to that which you may be used to at your own church.

Do I need to have made my Covenant of Love to attend?

No. Everyone is welcome to attend a Covenant Mass irrespective of your knowledge of or involvement in Schoenstatt.

Schoenstatt's Consecration Prayer

My Queen, my Mother,
I give myself entirely to you,
and to show my devotion to you,
I consecrate to you this day
my eyes, my ears, my mouth, my heart,
my entire self without reserve.
As I am your own, my good Mother,
guard me and defend me
as your property and your possession.

Amen.
